

UNFCCC COP 21 PARIS SIDE EVENT

(Photo: B Koelle)

ACHIEVING A PARADIGM SHIFT WITH THE GREEN CLIMATE FUND: THE CRITICAL ROLE OF CIVIL SOCIETY

The Green Climate Fund is expected to support a fundamental paradigm shift towards low-carbon and climate-resilient development. The event will discuss the critical and constructive role of civil society at various levels to improve renewable energy & adaptation impact and how it can be strengthened.

Date: 30 Nov 2015

Time: 16.45 - 18.15

Venue: Room 2, Paris – La Bourget

Programme

Moderator: Bettina Koelle (Indigo development & change)

- 16.45 Introduction to the programme (Bettina Koelle, Indigo development & change)
- 16:50 GCF - state of play (Oscar Reyes, Institute for Policy Studies and Andrea Rodríguez, Interamerican Association for Environmental Defense)
- 17.05 Insights from the Adaptation Fund NGO Network (Emmanuel Seck, ENDA Energy & Alpha Kaloga, Germanwatch)
- 17.20 GCF Watch (Red Constantino, iCSC)
- 17.35 How the GCF can contribute to transformative renewable energy (Fabby Tumiwa, Institute for Essential Services Reform)
- 17.45 Responses from the floor & Discussion
- 18.15 Closure

Hosted by:

